

JERSEY APPEALS TO GIRL STUDENTS IN SCHOOL CRISIS

Your Country Calls You, Reads Letter Addressed to High School Graduates.

TRENTON, N. J., May 7.—A letter to senior high school girls of New Jersey concerning teaching was called to-day to the attention of all high school girls by Calvin N. Kendall, Commissioner of Education. The letter was prepared by Miss Sarah A. Dynes of the Trenton Normal School, Miss Marion G. Clark of the Newark Normal School and Miss Adele Castin of the Montclair Normal School. State Commissioner Kendall has asked that it be used in the high school exercises to-day. The letter follows:

"You are needed. The country calls you. So it called its young men two years ago. To keep democracy safe we must have a second 'line of defence'—not in the trenches, but in the school house. Ignorance may conquer where the enemy failed. If you have longed for something big and fine to do join the most powerful army in the world—the army of those who lead the children of the people.

"One teacher has a thousand times more power to make her country better than has the voter. What will be your reward? (1) You will be doing something worth while. You will be as truly an artist as one who paints pictures or writes verse. (2) Tony,

Mike, Fanchette, Alice and Inedore will love you and you will love them, no reward can be greater. (3) You will be not in a blind alley occupation, but in a profession where there is opportunity for growth. There is also room for originality and a chance for advancement in teaching. There is always a better position somewhere ahead and always a reward for ability. (4) Many teachers marry. That is why so many new ones are needed. When you marry your training as a teacher will help to make you a good wife and mother and neighbor. (5) The public, which has just begun to discover how valuable teachers are, will pay you a better salary than most business men can afford to pay.

 Teachers' salaries have risen rapidly and are still rising."

Americanism as Church Theme.
 John H. Finley, State Commissioner of Education, will give an address on Americanism at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The meeting will be under auspices of the Social Service Commission of the Diocese and will be of special interest by its relation to the annual diocesan convention which begins Monday.

The Aeolian Company's ANNUAL MAY SALE of EXCHANGED PIANOS and PLAYER-PIANOS

Prices Far Below Their Present Actual Values

THE Aeolian Company, with its five metropolitan establishments, does by far the largest high-grade music business in New York. Selling the most advanced types of musical instruments such as the wonderful new Duo-Art Pianola Piano, etc., there comes to these five establishments a steady stream of regular pianos and player-pianos, exchanged for the new type. These returned instruments all go to the Aeolian Repair Shops and are there subjected to the most thorough overhauling.

 They are tuned, polished, regulated, repaired when necessary and when again offered to the public in these great annual Sales are practically indistinguishable from new in appearance, condition and value.

An opportunity, therefore, to secure a piano or player-piano of standard make, virtually new in value, but at a price much below that of several years ago, is not to be ignored.

GRANDS and UPRIGHTS

Included in this great Sale are Grand and Upright Pianos of the following famous makes: Steinway, Weber, Knabe, Chickering, Hardman, Kramich and Bach, Sohmer, Fischer, Haines, Wheelock, Everett and many others.

These exchanged instruments come from homes of refinement and having been thoroughly renovated by Aeolian expert workmen, are guaranteed to be in perfect playing condition.

Delivery of any of these pianos will be made for a small down payment and convenient monthly terms.

PIANOLAS and other PLAYER- PIANOS

The Pianolas and other Player-Pianos included in this Sale are all modern in type with up-to-date expression devices and playing regulation 88-note music rolls.
 Among them is a large collection of genuine Pianolas, including Weber, Steck, Wheelock, and Stroud. There is also a wide assortment of Player-Pianos of various makes, all are in splendid condition and represent extraordinary values.

Moderate cash payments; balance of purchase price on convenient monthly terms.

Prices from $225. up

Every Instrument in the sale carries the full Aeolian guarantee All Departments, including Vocalion Salesrooms, will be open this week until 9:30 p. m.
